an interactive toolkit for developing inclusive youth activities

The Good Childhood® Youth Toolkit has been specifically designed to help churches develop and implement their youth work ministry and help make childhood better for young people in their community.

It was produced in partnership with the Diocese of London and is an interactive CD.

Information included on the CD:

- Starting out - how to set up and manage a youth activity
- Sample guidance documents - safe practice and procedures for use in church
- Youth worker recruitment and employment - how to budget, advertise, recruit, and employ youth workers
- Volunteers - recruiting and supporting them
- Youth club resources - templates to assist in the day-to-day running of a youth group
- Session planning ideas - top tips for working with young people

The Good Childhood Youth Toolkit is a FREE resource. If you would like to make a contribution towards the cost of the product, an optional donation of £4.99 would be gratefully received. Once registered, FREE upgrades and additional resources will be sent to you as they become available. To order a copy of your interactive CD, call The Children's Society supporter action line on 0845 300 1128.
